Author's Note |

In this story, each chapter ends with a puzzle. Solve it to unlock the next chapter. The password to each drive file is the first 5 letters of the previous chapter puzzle's answer. (Note : First letter will be capital).

For example, if the answer of any puzzle is "abcdefg", the password for the next chapter file would be "Abcde", in case of apostrophe, for example : "äbcd's efg" - the password will be "Äbcds".

An answer key will be released soon. Best of Luck!
